Bruinsma Drive Snowballs Campaign Days Chest Drive Workers Nearing Close Review 'Flight' Plans

Congressional nominee Ted Bruinsma enters closing days of his campaign riding a record-breaking tide of endorsements from 17th District newspapers and civic groups.

Over the past weekend both the Torrance Press and the traditionally Republican Los Angeles Times gave strongly worded endorsements of Bruinsma's candidacy.

Other newspapers have also editorially urged their readers to back Bruinsma Tuesday.

This marks the first time in the history of the 17th Congressional District that nearly all local newspapers, of both Democrat and Republican editorial policies, have united so strongly behind one candidate, Bruinsma supporters say.

"Because it feels the people want to make their own choice in political campaigns, the Torrance Press generally refrains from unequivocal endorsements of candidates or issues," said this newspaper in a front page editorial Sunday.

"In the up-coming Nov. 6 election, however, one candidate stands out above all others, making him worthy of strong editorial support. That candidate is Ted Bruinsma," said the Press.

"Ted Bruinsma is a well-trained young leader who offers hope for a badly-needed revitalized leadership in the sometimes neglected Harbor area," commented the Times.

The unusual number and strength of newspaper endorsements has produced high optimism in the Bruinsma camp.

"We are flatly predicting a decisive victory for Ted Bruinsma Nov. 6," comments campaign director John Christman of San Pedro.

"Ted has personally met more than 10,000 voters during this campaign. He has made more than 300 speeches to various organizations and civic gatherings. He has conducted the most vigorous campaign ever waged in this area.

"On the other hand, the incumbent Congressman has yet to make his second public appearance inside his District since Congress adjourned.

"Ted's opponent has ducked out at the last minute of every scheduled debate. He has shown no interest in representing the people of the 17th District and confirmed the fact that it is time for a change," Christman asserted.

Maytag Dealer 'Moves' East

NEWTON, Ia. — Andy Anderson of Liberty Home Appliances, 3345 Torrance Blvd., will be among nearly 150 Californians, reversing a trend of recent years, who are planning to move to Iowa—albeit only for two nights and a day.

D-Day is Monday for the friendly invasion of the Maytag company's Newton headquarters by a group of appliance dealers.

Their primary objective is to obtain more product information through tours of the laundry appliance firm's two manufacturing plants and meetings with key personnel of the Iowa company. The trip assumes added significance since more Maytag appliances are marketed in California than in any other state.

THE ONE-CENT NICKEL

The first United States coin containing nickel was a small one-cent piece issued in 1857. It was made of an alloy of 12 per cent nickel and 88 per cent copper.

Over 3500 strong and determined to land first on target with the "Mostest" number of dollars, Torrance residential workers for the Community Chest this week reviewed their "flight plans," heard final briefings and awaited the "C-Day" countdown Monday.

Goal to go: $42,550, close to 40 per cent of the total $106,900 goal.

In South Torrance, residential leadership rests with Mrs. D. O. Schell, who is also Community Chest chairman of the Las Vincentas Club, which has again this year taken responsibility for an entire division under chairmanship of welcome Wagon Hostess, Mrs. L. P. Strauss.

Women of St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Parish under division chairmanship of Mrs. B. F. Stevens have a responsibility of a division combining residential and two business areas.

Mrs. Stevens enlisted her husband as business co-chairman. He with a fellow-representative of the Franklin Life Insurance Company, Charles E. Stacks, are recruiting manpower to cover shopping centers at Hawthorne and Pacific Highway in Welteria and in Rolling Hills Plaza, just inside Torrance boundaries at Crenshaw and Pacific Highway.

Mrs. Simpson, another South Torrance division leader, before a vacation trip to Hawaii and back, did a speedy organizational job. One of her section chairmen, Mrs. Howard Goddell of St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, is carrying this assignment for the second year.

North Torrance Unit

James C. Corcoran.

Two others have been taken by Mrs. Dale Galbraith and are to be completely covered, with section leaders and workers from St. Catherina Laboure Catholic Parish.

Two remaining chairmen, Meslames Conrad Jackson and J. E. Kolb seek women-power, both door-to-door workers and section-wise.

LEADERSHIP Mrs. James A. Davis, Camp Fire leader and national winner of Camp Fire Silver Leadership Medalion, as have other Torrance leaders, as unit chairman for Central Torrance, has relied for leadership on women affiliated with one or more Chest-supported agencies.

Midtown division chairman is Mrs. Charles Butterfield, Community Chest chairman of the Church of the Nativity Catholic Parish. Another central Torrance division is headed by Mrs. Jack Dean, member of the board of the Torrance YWCA and Girl Scout leader who is 10 per cent organized with section leaders.

EVERYBODY BACKS BRUINSMA!

"In the up-coming November 6 election one candidate stands out above all the others. That candidate is Ted Bruinsma. His handshake has become synonymous with the spirit of victory."

TORRANCE PRESS

"Ted Bruinsma is a well-trained young leader who offers hope for badly-needed revitalized leadership in the sometimes neglected Harbor area. The Times endorses Ted Bruinsma for Congressman of the 17th District."

LOS ANGELES TIMES

"Bruinsma's vigorous, intelligent campaign has enlisted the support of a number of prominent Democrats and Republicans in addition to the rank and file of important segments of the district's population. Voters of the 17th Congressional District will have a working Congressman in Washington if Bruinsma is elected."

TORRANCE HERALD

"The election of a Congressman from this district is no longer a political issue as represented by parties, but rather an issue of placing the most qualified man in the position of doing us the most good."

CHARLES ORLIN, PROMINENT SAN PEDRO DEMOCRAT

"Ted Bruinsma for Congress because his personal charm, background and intelligence are the right combination for the representation we need."
